NATHANITE

NATHANITE

presented by the
Senior Class of 1961
Drury High School

BARBARA TRABOLD

Co-Editor

We have endeavored throughout this book not only to present a record of the 1960-1961 school year, but also to capture the true spirit of Drury High School which we have felt for the past four years.

This is the building, the students, the faculty, and the traditions of an institution dedicated to an intangible ideal that tomorrow's achievements are built on today's accomplishments, the dreams of yesterday.

The Nathanite Staff would like to extend a sincere "thank-you" to everyone who helped in the publication of our Yearbook. We hope that you will enjoy the 1961 Nathanite as much as we have enjoyed publishing it.

NATHANITE STAFF

Beginning in September of 1960, the annual Nathanite Staff began its year's work that was terminated in June following graduation ceremonies. Staff members are carefully selected for their dependability, talents, and willingness to work. Their job is to produce the best pictorial record of our school within the yearly budget.

Why do we dedicate the Nathanite to you?

Because you enter our school early each day and offer your services after school hours.

Because of your patience and untiring efforts with our Exchange Group and Senior Class Activities.

Because you were there when we needed you most, we give to you the most precious gift we have to offer . . . the dedication of a year of work, a year of what we hope will be your fondest memories.

Mrs. Marion Sweeney, the Senior Class of 1961 dedicates this book to you.

IN MEMORIAM

Charles H. McCann started the Trade School at Drury High and taught here for twenty years. He possessed a sincerity of purpose and an unyielding devotion and dedication to help and encourage youth, both in school and in industry. In his heart and soul was the idea of a more equitable educational opportunity for the youth and adults in this area.

"Mr. Mac," as he was known by his students, considered it a special privilege to help each one of his boys grow in confidence, in ability, and in knowledge, sometimes despite their almost overwhelming personal problems.

A favorite quotation of Mr. McCann was—"I shall prepare myself—for my opportunity shall surely come."

The city of North Adams and the surrounding area suffered a great personal loss with Mr. McCann's death, but the students and citizens will know him always through the school his dream and drive built and through his "beloved boys" whom he brought to manhood. As a teacher he would ask no more.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Our School Committee is not seen by our students in everyday school life, yet the school could not function without it. Balancing the budget while wrestling with the necessity of securing new equipment for our school, alleviating the problem of overcrowded rooms, securing new teachers, planning new building and expansion programs . . . and the list goes on as the duties of our School Committee members increase from year to year. Realizing that their decisions direct the course of our school, this group holds numerous and lengthy meetings in an effort to give the people of the community the most for their money.

Administration

TO THE CLASS OF 1961

CONVICTIONS

All persons have convictions. Your home, school, and church training point the direction and help you form convictions for good living and for good citizenship. The real test of the strength of character lies in how well one uses his convictions as guide posts for action. We frequently hear the phrase, "does he have the courage of his convictions?" This expression implies that some persons with good convictions do not have the courage to follow through as would be expected.

As graduates of Drury High School, you will be so known by your friends as long as you live. They will expect you to have courage and good convictions. We, the faculty and administration, have tried through formal courses, to instill within each of you the ability to develop honorable convictions. We shall now watch your actions in public to determine if we did our work well. We will judge you not whether your opinion agrees with ours but whether you really have "the courage of your convictions."

Respectfully,

Robert N. Taylor
Superintendent of Schools

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

It is a sincere pleasure to write a few thoughts for the Class of 1961. Similar to last year, this has an additional meaning for another milestone has been reached.

During the Revolutionary War Thomas Paine stated, "These are the times that try men's souls." History is replete with such times. You are living, at this moment, in trying times. The spread of Communism, integration, missile development, and complacent citizens are alarming in their extent. To curb this extent is to demand greater strength on the part of many than ever before. This strength is not only to be physical but also moral. Moral strength is strength of character. The implication is that there must be knowledge of truth and fulfillment of this truth. The fulfillment of truth is where strength of character prevails.

These thoughts are given to you for reflection and analysis of your status, as you enter another phase of your life. You will adjust to the challenges of the times according to your strengths and weaknesses. As an American, reaping the benefits of our wonderful way of life, you are duty-bound to develop to the best of your capacity. It means continual hard work and study. It means keeping in mind the following—"Character is a victory, not a gift."

May happiness and continued success follow each and every member of the Class of 1961.

CLASS ODE 1961
(Theme of Exodus)

The time has come to bid a fond adieu
To Drury, Alma Mater true.
In words, none can express
The thoughts we wish to stress;
Feelings mixed with joy and, somehow, sorrow, too.
The joy because at last we have achieved
The goals set forth in younger years.
Yet sorrow filters through
For all the friends we knew
Who will soon continue on their separate ways.

Now that the year is done, it seems
We've just begun to walk along our path of dreams
To brighter goals,
To greater dreams.

Led by these dreams we feel destined to build,
We bid a fond farewell to thee.
Though years may come and go
And such dreams fade, we know
That our faith in God shall ever strengthened be.
So, Drury, we shall e'er remember you;
Your dedicated teachers, too.
Many good times we've had
To overpower the bad.
May your walls ne'er fall 'til time itself is through.

With our faith in God for aye,
We will not say good-bye, dear Alma Mater true:
We'll say farewell,
Farewell to you!

Miss Dianne Falcon '61

DRURY ALMA MATER

Drury, Mother on the hill
Time but adds to faith in thee
For we are all thy children still
And loyal we'll ever be.

With thy banners blue unfurled,
Battles fought, we upward climb
O lead us onward through the world
But victory and praise be thine.

Years may come and years may go,
Hope and courage hearts will fill
Still our thoughts will backward flow
Beloved Drury on the hill.

Hail, hail, all hail to thee
Honored forever be
Let our voices sing thy praises
Drury on the hill.

C
Clubs

Organizations

DRAMA CLUB

Seated: Eleanor Lazzeri, Susan Elder, President; Robert McGovern. Standing: Joanne Kelly, Judith Davine, Carole McDonald, Karen Anderson, Catherine Oldham.

The purpose of this theatrical organization is to give interested students an opportunity to explore the field of dramatic arts. The Christmas Assembly staged by this group was a complete success. The members of this club have benefited greatly from their journey into the theatrical world.

VARSITY CLUB

The members of this club are those boys who have received a letter for participation in one of Drury's many sports. In this past year they have sold pins and banners and have sponsored dances for the Drury student body. Much credit should be given the members for attempting to keep alive the spirit of Drury.

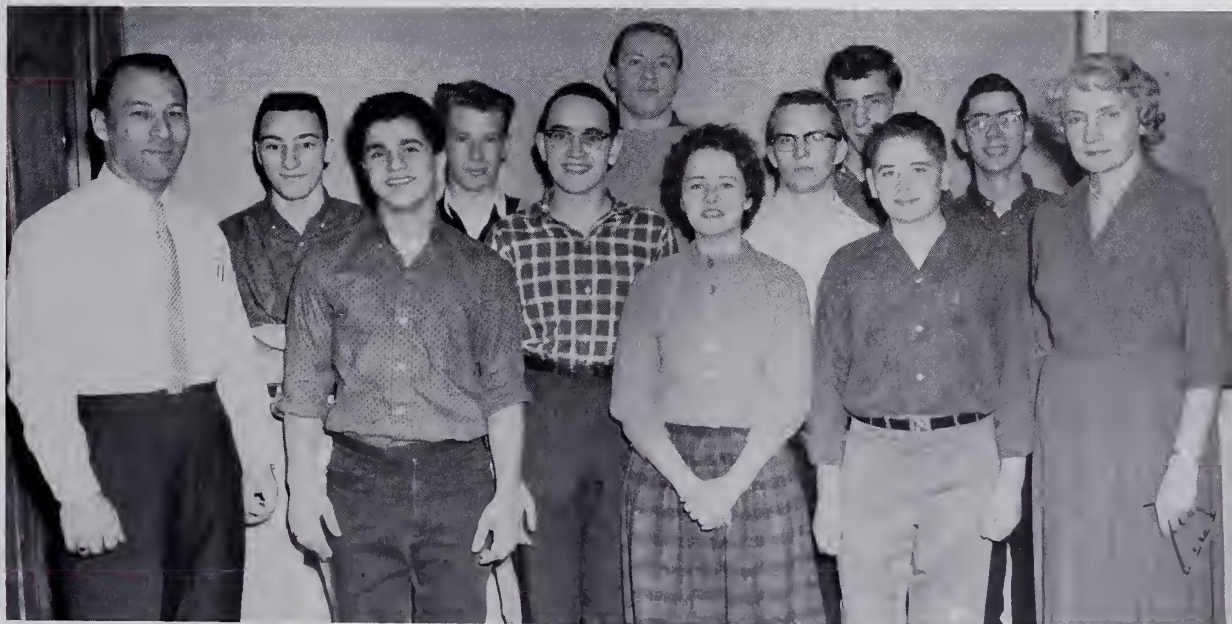

ART CLUB

Seated: Jo-Anne Cook, Linda Choquette, Janet Buzzell, Kathy Trottier, Cathy McCarthy. Standing: George Ruberti, Mary Collins, Cheryl Perry, James Thompson, Sandra Champney, Sylvia Godyn, Linda Burdick, Donna Campbel, Frances Harrington, Marilyn Harrington, Jo-Anne Collins, Carolyn Sanford, Cynthia Swift, Clarence Sullivan, Busbee Williams.

Students are given an opportunity to develop their artistic talents in this club. With the assistance of Miss Murray, their capable advisor, the members learn how to expand their skills. This opportunity may pave the way for an exciting career in art.

SCIENCE CLUB

Members of this club have an opportunity to experiment with the practical application of science by developing projects throughout the school year. Much knowledge is gained by the individuals whose curiosity is stimulated while working toward their goals.

STUDENT COUNCIL

First Row: B. Guisti, C. Murphy, Parliamentarian, J. Rhodes, Vice President, E. Mahoney, President, P. Washburn, Secretary, P. Mantello, Treasurer, J. Gibeau, R. Asterino. Second Row: Mr. C. Boisvert, Advisor, J. Schulze, S. Brallier, Chaplain, S. Williams, Chaplain, G. Brierley, J. Shapiro, Miss M. Stewart, Advisor. Third Row: B. Trudeau, F. Horahan, D. Scully, W. Toohey, B. Batease, J. DelNegro, G. Lerrigo.

The aim of the Student Council is to maintain and uphold the standards and spirit of the school. They voice the opinions of the students and bring them to the attention of the school authorities. We wish to congratulate the Student Council for the fine job it has done this past year.

F.T.A.

First Row: M. Kelman, C. Giorgenti, J. Darling, J. Graziola, D. Fulginiti, F. Windover, Treasurer, A. Pelletier, Ex. Board, J. Wojcik, Ex. Board, P. Libardi. Second Row: S. Clough, M. Lev, J. Girgenti, J. Marsh, K. Trottier, J. Heggerty, C. Rosch, Secretary, D. Prenguber, Vice President, J. Clark, Librarian, P. Girgenti, E. Gorczakoski. Third Row: C. Sanford, M. Lenhoff, L. Libardi, C. McCarthy, L. Maxymillian, S. Lavanway, H. Pratt, J. Steuer, J. Benedetti. Fourth Row: D. Tadiello, President, W. Montagna, M. Gamari, D. Scully, P. Partenope, D. Stone, J. Cermenaro, K. Chalmers, D. Ralston.

Through speakers, films, and discussions the members of F.T.A. are introduced to the pros and cons of the teaching profession. This past year, they began the sale of paperback books which proved beneficial to both the club and the students of Drury. We hope the F.T.A. will continue their fine job of preparing interested students for the teaching field.

EXCHANGE GROUP

First Row: B. Mastroianni, B. Montagna, R. Callahan, P. Girgenti, J. Troia, C. Oldham, K. Rosasco, P. Prenguber. Second Row: M. La Versa, C. Rosch, J. Schulze, E. Boisjolie, M. Drotter, S. Members of the Junior Class who have maintained a percentage of 85 or better during their first two years at Drury and who have displayed excellent qualities of character are chosen for this honorary society. It has helped in a small way to balance the emphasis upon athletics. Congratulations to the members who have made the most of their opportunities.

JOHN H. REILLY SPEAKING CONTEST

L. to R.: Mary Lou Brewer, Eleanor Lazzeri (First Prize); George Lerrigo (Second Prize); Carolyn Sanford, Ann Clark.

This year the John H. Reilly Speaking Contest was held at an assembly program to stimulate greater student interest in oral presentation. The success of this program proved that the aims of the contest were fulfilled. Congratulations to this year's winners and best of luck to those who compete next year.

HONOR JACKETS

The 1960 Football Team is to be commended for the fine performance shown during every game. At the beginning of the season, the team was greatly handicapped because of a lack of veterans. However, as the season progressed, improvement could be seen at every game. The result of their hard work and determination was obvious in the victory over Adams.

Congratulations to the coaching staff and squad.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of '61, being in as sane a frame of mind as can be expected, do proclaim this to be our last will and testament, bequeathing to:

Mr. Taylor—More speaking engagements at Drury

Mr. Drotter—A lifetime supply of jokes

Mrs. Allen—A class of girls with floor-length skirts

Mrs. Begnoche—Students that call her by her married name

Mr. Boden—A fond farewell and luck for the coming years

Mr. Boisvert—An abundant supply of chalk to throw

Mrs. Bousquet—Pleasant times at Drury

Mrs. Brawn—Freshmen who can read

Mr. Calloway—A rematch of the Civil War

Miss Cody—An all-expense paid vacation away from guidance problems

Mr. Dean—Uniforms for his growing baseball team

Mr. DelNegro—Another first and second period class like this year's

Mr. Federici—A winning set of plays for Lodi High School

Mrs. Getchell—A year's subscription to a diaper service

Mr. Getchell—A chorus consisting of one hundred Betsy Clermonts

Mr. Gloster—Good luck at Greylock Regional

Mr. Gravel—A female exchange sponsor to equal this year's

Miss Guilbault—A one-way ticket to Hollywood

Mr. Holloran—A megaphone to make himself heard over the girls' talking

Mr. Howard—A new watch band to tie in knots

Mrs. Howe—A shorter library delinquent list

Mr. Johnson—A new discus to replace the old one

Mr. Lamarre—A small, workable F.T.A.

Miss Loehr—A homeroom that can hear the 8:00 A.M. bell

Miss Lunney—Better Senior literary critics

Mr. MacDonald—A new pitching arm for batting practice next year

Mr. Merrigan—Definite proof that the world is flat

Mr. Mulholland—Freshmen and Sophomores with fewer problems

Miss Murray—The “Mona Lisa”

Mr. Murray—A better memory

Mr. Noel—A new set of card tricks

CLASS HISTORY

In one hour we would become Alumni of Drury High School. As we gathered on Noel Field in the traditional blue and white caps and gowns, feelings of joy and sadness filled our hearts as we recalled our four memorable years at "Drury on the Hill."

We entered in September, 1957, 218 Freshmen, curious and uncertain as to what lay before us. As we sat in the auditorium waiting for the assembly to begin, we could feel the eyes of the upperclassmen on us. They were all laughing at our silly antics. However, as the assembly proceeded our worried thoughts were cleared and we felt more at ease. After the assembly we went to our homerooms, trembling in fear until we discovered there were two doors to each room—ah, an avenue of escape!!

We soon found ourselves thrust into a busy school life. When the annual Field Day was held we proved ourselves equal to our upperclassmen by winning the competition with our sister class, the Juniors. This was a feather in our beanie which we were proud of.

As the year proceeded, we became a unified body. Our Student Council representatives were Jane Schulze, Jim Rhodes and John Gibeau. The J.V. Cheerleading squad now had five new members, Patricia Girgenti, Judy Noel, Margo Drotter, Tibby Mahoney and Dona Grillone. Bruce Gallagher made the Varsity Basketball Team that year.

Our biggest worry had been final exams and once we had struggled through them, we looked forward to our Sophomore year with keen anticipation.

Back to school strolled 213 silly Sophomores, and we feared no one now!! We had elected our class officers with Peter Spencer, President, Margo Drotter, Vice President, Patricia Girgenti, Secretary, and Dianne Falcon, Treasurer.

We showed our initiative and social inclinations when we presented the Sophomore Frolic Play, "Pajama Party," with an all-girl cast. The boys didn't have a chance! The theme of the dance was "Ghosts and Goblins" with cider, doughnuts, and cornstalks.

Tibby Mahoney was the new member to Student Council. The John H. Reilly Speaking Contest had two winners from our class, Margo Drotter won 2nd prize and Eileen Boisjolie won 3rd prize. Dona Grillone was captain of the J.V. Cheerleaders and Donna Fulginiti was captain of the Baton Twirlers.

When spring came and the girls' thoughts turned to love, the boys' thoughts turned to baseball and track.

In the fall of '59, 202 Juniors trudged up the walks of Drury High. A look of utter boredom was on the face of every student. But this proved to be one of the most exciting years in our high school career.

Our class officers this year were President, Pete Spencer, Vice President, Barbara Trabold, Secretary, Eileen Boisjolie, and Treasurer, Suzanne Trudeau. The newest member to Student Council was Julie Clark.

We voted on class rings and as a result two styles were chosen.

The Junior Class Play was the big event of the year. The title was "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." To the surprise of everyone, our class had much talent.

The Speaking Contest that year was won by Margo Drotter with Judy Noel winning 3rd place.

Our athletes helped win the Drury-Adams game and the Western Massachusetts Track meet. Fifty-two Juniors were honored at the Nu Sigma Assembly.

The spring found us planning the Senior Reception. Everyone worked to make this the best event of the school year. A Japanese theme added to the dream-like evening. Everyone had a marvelous time.

As some of us went off to leisurely vacations, others trudged off to summer school.

The fall of 1960 found 196 sophisticated seniors entering Drury High School. It didn't seem possible that this was the last year of our high school days. We were determined to make this a memorable year.

Class officers were President, Pete Spencer, Girls' Vice President, Barbara Trabold, Boys' Vice President, Bob McKee, Secretary, Eileen Boisjolie, and Treasurer, Dianne Falcon.

Marcia McGowan was elected captain of the Baton Twirlers and Margo Drotter was elected captain of the Varsity Cheerleaders. Bruce Gallagher was now captain of the Varsity Basketball and Baseball Team and Bob Heisler and Jim Rhodes were co-captains of the Track Team. Bob Heisler made All-Berkshire Football team.

Student Council's newest members were Suzanne Williams, Biff Trudeau, Stan Brailer, Bill Toohey. Tibby Mahoney was President.

The Yearbook editors were Barbara Trabold and Carol Rosch Co-editors, Ann Pelletier, Art Editor, Jane Callahan, Copy Editor, Margo Drotter, Sports Editor, Donna Fulginiti, Business Manager, and George Betourney, Photographer. Judy Noel was Editor-in-Chief of the Academe.

The Senior Class Play "Too Many Dates" was a real success. It had a modern day theme.

In February, 30 ecstatic students rolled off to Hershey, Pennsylvania, for a "no-doz" week. As senior year moved on, senioritis set in.

Eleanor Lazzari won the speaking contest, Tibby Mahoney was elected DAR Good Citizen, and Eileen Boisjolie was our representative to Student Government Day in Boston.

On a warm sunny day in May, the Memorial Day Exercises were held. It was a solemn affair with Mr. Gloster as main speaker.

As commencement day drew near, 45 Pro Merito members were listed with 12 attaining 90 per cent or better for four years.

Everything was graduation talk, and very little studying was done. The Senior Tea and Banquet were held at the Masonic Temple, Pro Merito Banquet at the Phoenix Hotel, and the Senior Reception at the Armory with a Parisian theme.

Thus ended our four never-to-be-forgotten years at Drury.

As we marched off the field with tears in our eyes, we humbly and sincerely said from the very depths of our hearts; "Thank You, Drury, We'll miss you!"

CLASS PROPHECY

We would like to read you a letter which might be written in June of 1976, by our class secretary, Eileen Boisjolie.

Miss Elizabeth Mahoney
23 Blubber Avenue
Anchorage, Alaska

Dear Tibby,

We were all very sorry that you were unable to attend our 15th reunion. However, we realize that you are very busy at your Chamber of Commerce office in Anchorage. I will try to tell you about some of our classmates.

I'm sure you remember good old Drury, but it has certainly changed in fifteen years. You remember Bob Baugh; well, he is now our distinguished principal. Margo Drotter had replaced Miss Guilbault as secretary. The department heads are Julie Clark, English; Mike LaVersa, mathematics; and Ernie Gamache, commercial. Janice Plantier, Sandy Exford, and Joan Briggs are librarians. Mary Delisle is now in charge of the cafeteria. Bob Heisler has made our football squad renowned throughout Massachusetts.

We began our activities with an informal gathering at Mama Montagna's Pizza Palace. Barb is assisted by Bob Lasher and Doreen Veazie. While we were at Barb's we took an attendance check. We learned that a few members were unable to attend for various reasons. Willian Andrews, Ed Archambeau, Paul Archambault, Mahlon Richards, David Haley, Robert Caprari, and David Fierro are all overseas in the armed forces. Carol Rosch and Phyllis Garofano are on a special mission for the Navy in England. Jim Rhodes and Bob Richardello are working as test pilots in France with Anne Pelletier as their interpreter for the French government. Jo-Anne Troia is designing the latest Paris fashions with Marcia Rowett as her model. Madeleine Vackas operates an exclusive shop featuring Jo-Anne's creations. Marylin Moreau and John Petri are stationed overseas with the Air Force.

In talking with our old classmates we learned about their present occupations. David McLelland is the owner of Dutch Hill with Mike Morrissey as head ski instructor. Jim Williams and Dave Whitney are co-owners of the Dutch Treat and Boot. Carol Parmenter and Cathie Oldham are co-owners of the new Paramount Theater. Dianne Falcon and Joan Wojcik are their able assistants.

Of course, you must have heard that Arnold Clough and Ray Schubnel built a new space vehicle to get to the new community on the planet "Druryite." Rose Cote is the stewardess for this trip. Bruce Gallagher is the mayor of the planet. June Haun is his secretary. Carl Dolle, Milton King, and Dick Bourassa are top contractors signed by the government to construct the homes and other buildings on the planet. Bernie Mastroianni handles the affairs of Pat Prenguber who is the superintendent of schools on "Druryite." John Gibeau handles international reporting for the planet. Jim Caron and Jim Cermenaro are councilmen for "Druryite," and Eleanor Lazzeri and Linda Maselli are their secretaries.

Several of our former classmates are currently in New York in show business. Chuck Hamilton is directing Romeo and Juliet on Broadway with Nick Altieri and Sandy Francis in the title roles. Bif Trudeau, Pat Troumpe, and Judy Davine are also involved in a new play recently produced and Judy Howe is engaged at the Metropolitan Opera.

A great many of our graduates are employed at the North Adams Hospital. Lorraine Barbeau and Diane Buletti are surgical nurses who assist Bob McKee who is a famous resident surgeon. Jean Mazza, Cheryl Perry, Anne and Marie Tassone and Pat Libardi are also employed as nurses with Susan McArthur as director of nurses. Mary Collins is the hospital pharmacist. Sally Costa and Gloria Jowett are employed as practicing chiropractors; Carolyn Skorupski and Joan Green are X-ray technicians; Sue Crosier is in charge of physical therapy; Sue Millis and Barb Trabold are directors of the dietary department; and Janice Nicol is in charge of the business office; Mike Coughlin and Carole McDonald are chief veterinarians at the animal hospital they founded.

We were proud to have the mayor of North Adams, Peter Spencer, in attendance, and several of our distinguished councilmen, Jim Eastman, Ed Wolkin, and Jim Nicol. Serving as their secretaries are Sandy Rougeau, Karen Anderson, Judy Mahar, and Donna Johnson. Pat Girgenti is now Dean of Women at State College in North Adams and Bill Miller is Dean of Men.

We awarded prizes to those married in the first year after graduation. They are: Kathleen Boynton and Bruce Ballou, Carole Oliver, Judy Ferrara, Mary Devio, Cynthia Hall, Sharron Holland, Nancy Tatro and Barb Clermont.

Two of our classmates who live on farms, Carl Lasher and Cynthia Swift gave us some of their goods for our banquet on Saturday. The banquet was held at the 1961 House owned by Charles Corbiere. The dinner was prepared by chefs, Frank Risatti and Andy Zoito. Donald Sheldon and Bruce Bombardier served as maitres des with Bob Cooper as the bouncer.

We were entertained by a short excerpt from the Susan Elder TV dance show. George Betourney performed his famous two step, and Sue Williams performed the pony.

A taxi service with drivers Bob Tallarico, Howard Bartlett, and Paul Brassard used their cars to make sure everyone arrived on time.

Many of the girls had their hair done at Marcia McGowan's Beauty Salon. She was assisted by Joanne Cook, Tony Cantoni, Linda Burdick, Mary Brassard and Kathleen Fountain. Many of the fellows had haircuts at the barber shop owned by Barry Brazeau and Bill Cote.

There was a write up about our reunion in "Just For the Ladies" and Donna Scavo as fashion consultant, Barb Duprea as advisor to the sewing column, Donna Fulginiti, as business manager, Sandy Lesure as art editor and Roland Remillard as photographer. Also on the staff is Hazel LaPlante who writes an advice to the lovelorn column entitled "Dear Plant."

Many of our former classmates have become famous scientists at Cape Canaveral. Phil Bassett translates English formulas into German for Dr. Werner Von Braun, and Stan Brallier measures the length of the nose cones with his slide rule. Joan Boucher and Joan Girardi run the IBM machines and, John Kelsey and Ronnie O'Neil play chess with the Minute Men. Jack Marchio has replaced the monkey in the capsule and is currently orbiting the earth for the eleventh time.

Several members were in Florida at the time of the reunion. Members of the International Cam Busters were racing that weekend. They were Bill Beer, Tom Elder, Eddie Dunn, Neal Crosier, Jim Modena, Fran Perreault, and Bill Sherman. Neil Anderson and Russ Bullett served as their chief mechanics. Joe Holloway and Jim Russell are teaching golf at a famous winter resort. Tim Bergandahl, Billy Robinson and Fran Fachetti are playing baseball in Orlando.

Ki-Ki Rosasco and Bill Bolt were absent because of a recent safari to Africa.

Saturday night more prizes were given out. Lois Morandi received one for being the first married, Joanne Kelly for surviving her fourth husband, and of course, I received one for having the most children.

We were also entertained by a dance band made up of Gene Bourassa as business manager, Gene Harvey on the drums, Frank Boucher, on the piano and Bill Toohey on the trombone.

Law and order was kept by the local police department composed of Bob Keating. Roger King, Dave LeBeau, George Deneault, Charles Jones, Omer LaFountain, and Jack McConnell is now chief of police. Faith Windover is a capable police woman

The girls who run the Williamstown nursery, Jane Schultz, Ann Brown, Ruth Callahan, and Shirley O'Connor, had trouble getting away from their children, but they finally made it although they arrived quite late.

Later we were invited to Butch Martin's night club where Stuart George and Al Sartori were the starring act. Bob Sunn served as the hat checker, and Carole Sebastino and Linda Neville as cigarette girls. We also lost some money at the gambling casino run by Dave Clark, Steve Wood, Bucky Williams, and John Gallup.

Several people are engaged in the selling profession in North Adams. Cheryl Miller and Pat Bliss sell horses at their stable in Clarksburg. Emily Bleau runs the Modern Dairy and sold us all our ice cream. Bill Denault, Don Goddard, and Ray Armstrong sell toys and auto supplies at Jack and Harry's. Bob Cramer and John Camadine sell cars, and Donna Grillone is their able secretary. Steve Sokolove, Sandy Seeger, and Sheralyn Shays sell just about everything over station WMNB.

Well, I must go now; one of my children is calling me. Please, try to attend our next reunion, meanwhile I think you'll be surprised if any of our classmates actually does what we've said here.

Your 1961 Classmate,
Eileen
